Another excellent feature of this apartment is its natural light. The window frames are oscillating stops, with double glazing and the east and west solar orientation, ensuring luminosity throughout the day. In addition, it is located in a quiet environment, with a lovely view of a green area.

The location of the property is privileged, as it combines the proximity of shops, schools, restaurants and green areas. For daily needs, supermarkets, such as Bazar da Lena and the Municipal Market of Pinhal de Frades, are within walking distance, as is the local pharmacy.

Nature enthusiasts can enjoy the Pinhal de Frades Children's Park, just a few steps away.

With all of these amenities and a close-knit community, Pinhal de Frades is the ideal place for anyone looking for a peaceful and thriving environment to call home.
